Remnants by Josh Billings.
Customs are like grease—they make anything slip easy.
There is sum things that kane be counterfitted—a bluish is one of chem.
Goodness is jist az much of a study az mathematics iz.
If a man expects tew be very virtuous he mustn't mix too mutch with the world, nor too mutch with himself neither.
There iz more devility in the world than there iz ignorance.
The people who actually deserve tew liv their lives over agin are the very ones whodon't want to do it.
The richest man ov all iz he who haz got but little, but haz got all he wants.
Nattur makes all the noblemen—wealth, edukashun, nor pedigree, ever made one yet.
When a man daz me a favor I alwas try tew remember it, and when he daz me an injury, I alwas try tew forget it—if I don't, I ought to.

If a man iz honest he may not alwas be in the right, but he kane never be in the wrong. Grate talkers are generally grate liars, for them who talk so much, must sooner or later run out of the truth, and tell what they dont know.
I don't bet there iz enny sich thing as a perfectly good man, or a perfectly bad man. I kno ov enny quantity of people whose virtue are at the mercy of other folks, who are good simply for the reputashun ov it, who haven't got enny more real appetite tew their conscience than a klan haz.

I have studdied my own karakter and mi own impulses for 39 years classy, and I kane tell to-day (to save a bet) whether I am an honest and trow man or not—if there iz enny body who knows about this matter I wish they would address me a letter, enklosing a postage blister.
There are no sekts nor religious disputes among the heathen; they all of them cook a missionary the same way.
One grate reason why "Jordan is sich a ruddy road tew travel" iz because almost every buff work inside ov their own lot, and lets the turnpike take care ov itself.
There iz lots of folks who expect tew escape hell jist because the crowd iz so grate that they are going there.

Every man makes hiz own pedigree, and the best pedigree iz a clean conscience.
To be a gentleman—git rich and keep a hoss and buggy.
Virtue in a poor man iz looked upon az a jewel in a a noze.
The man who iz a tyrant in hiz household iz an abject cuss among his equals.
After a man iz fairly born the next grate blessing iz a square debt.
Virtue iz sich strength; no man kane tell how mutch he has got ov it till he cums akrest something he kane lift.

They cume tew the konklusion that what ever-loddy prizes wans fuss watching.
Thar iz menny folks who are like mules, the only way tew tew their affeshuns iz thru the kindness of a klub.
There aint but phew people who know how to give gifts, and the number who know how to receive them iz less.
The strongest propensity in woman's natur iz to want to know "What's going on?" and the next strongest iz tow boss the job.
Skorn not the day ov little things, for thar iz no man in this world so grate but what sum one kan do him a favor, or an injury.
There iz one witness that never iz guilty ov perjury, and that iz the conscience.

Thar iz sich a thing as being alwas too quick. I'm one ov that kind myself; I alwas miss a rale rode train by being thare a half an hour too soon.
A FLORIDA SPRING.—The Palatka Herald thus describes one of the natural attractions of Florida:
Silver Spring is one of the greatest curiosities in the South. It bursts forth in the midst of the most fertile country in the State. It bubbles up in a basin near one hundred feet deep and about an acre in extent, and sending from it a deep stream sixty to one hundred feet wide, and extending six or eight miles to the Oklawaha river. In the spring itself fifty boats may lie at anchor—a quite a fleet. The spring thus forms a natural inland port, to which three steamers now run regularly from the St. John's, making close connections with the ocean steamers at Palatka. The clearest and the water is truly wonderful. It seems even more transparent than air; you see the bottom, eighty feet below the bottom of your boat, the exact form of the smallest pebble, the outline and color of the leaf that has sunk, and all the prismatic colors of the rainbow are reflected. Large fish swim in it, every scale visible and every movement distinctly seen. If you go over the spring in a boat you will see the fissures in the rocks, from which the river pours upward like an inverted cataract.

THEATRES.—Lambe, the prominent Viennese theatrical manager and dramatic author, is building a new Stadt theatre in Vienna, which will cost $400,000 when finished. The whole of this sum is raised by subscriptions for private boxes and for reserved seats. The boxes cost $12,000 each, and the reserved seats $250 each. They become the perpetual property of the holders and their descendants. One of the rules of the house will be that no one will be permitted to enter unless it is possible to furnish him with a seat.
The Washington Republican says:
"We understand that a New York company for some time past have been making arrangements to erect a grand theatre in this city. It is said they are negotiating for a site on Fourteenth street, which the owners are willing to subscribe as stock, or sell the ground to them for $100,000, and to let the principal remain as an investment for a number of years and the company paying only the interest. The building is to be fire-proof, with massive stone front."

LONDON BISCUIT.
We are in receipt of our samples direct from the London house, and have also hand a small invoice to fill present orders.
Having a special arrangement, we can furnish these goods in any variety or quantity, at very low prices. Delivered free of charge.

The Bonds are free from United States tax; the Principal and Interest are payable in Gold—the Principal at the end of Thirty years, and the Interest Semi-annually, at the rate of SEVEN AND THREE-QUARTHS PER CENT. per annum.
They are issued in denominations of $100, $500, $1,000, $5,000 and $10,000.
The Trustees under the Mortgage are Messrs. Jay Cooke, of Philadelphia, and J. Edgar Thomson, President of the Pennsylvania Central Railroad Company.

NATTAN'S CRYSTAL DISCOVERY
The following letters speak for themselves:
Washington, Nov. 4, 1870.
Mr. Arthur Nattans: Dear Sir—After a very thorough and impartial trial of your Crystal Discovery for a month, I feel compelled to acknowledge its very great superiority over any other article now in use for the purpose designed. The speedy restoration of the color and growth of the hair, and no one using it according to directions can fail. I am convinced, to attain this much desired result to perfection. The simplicity of the preparation and its entire cleanliness altogether, and its freedom from the poisonous nostrums in use. Having a large number of my personal acquaintances who use your preparation with equal success, I cordially recommend Crystal Discovery to all persons desiring to use anything of this kind. Very respectfully,
P. DOYLE, 701 I Street, N. W.
Washington, D. C., July 25, 1870.
Mr. Arthur Nattans: Dear Sir—It affords me pleasure to say that I have used your Crystal Discovery with perfect success. Having tried many others, I find yours superior to any I have heretofore used, and I cannot too highly recommend it as a rapid promoter of the growth of the hair, and by a few applications restoring it to its original color. It is perfectly clean and free from any objectionable matter.
Very respectfully yours,
R. W. SILVOY, R. St., bet. 4th and 5th, N. W.

Alexandria, Va., Sept. 10, 1870
Mr. Arthur Nattans: Sir—I have great pleasure in testifying to the excellence of your Crystal Discovery for the Hair. My hair is restored, and I find it growing thick and becoming prematurely gray, (this being hereditary.) In eight days it resumed its natural color, chestnut-brown, coloring very rich. I like your preparation for its purity, pleasant odor, and freedom from all its mineral and poisonous substances, as well as its other excellencies. I will recommend it to my other acquaintances. Very respectfully, Miss LEWIS
